RE: Case No. 2004-00462

Dear Ms. O'Donnell:

Pursuant to the Commission's Order issued on March 29, 2005, in the above referenced case, Columbia Gas of Kentucky, Inc. ("Columbia") submits an original and ten (10) redacted copies of its Final Gas Price Hedging Plan Report for the 2005-2006 season. Columbia's hedging plan and initial hedging report were both granted confidential treatment in the instant case. In the Petition for Confidentiality attached hereto Columbia requests confidential treatment for its final hedging plan report.

If you have questions, please don't hesitate to contact me at 859-288-0242 or jmcoop@nisource.com.

Sincerely,

Case No. 2004-00462

PETITION OF COLUMBIA GAS OF KENTUCKY, INC.
FOR CONFIDENTIAL TREATMENT OF
COLUMBIA'S FINAL HEDGING REPORT AND SUBSEQUENT HEDGING REPORTS

Columbia Gas of Kentucky, Inc. ("Columbia") respectfully petitions the Kentucky Public Service Commission ("Commission"), pursuant to 807 KAR 5:001, Section 7, for confidential treatment of Columbia's Final Hedging Report for the 2005-2006 heating season, attached hereto, and subsequent hedging reports.

1. On March 29, 2005, the Commission entered an Order in this proceeding approving Columbia's hedging program. The Order directed Columbia to file an initial hedging report and a final hedging report for each heating season.

2. The attachment to this Petition contains Columbia's Final Hedging Report for the 2005-2006 heating season¹. The Final Hedging Report contains sensitive pricing information and confidential information about Columbia's hedging strategies.

3. Coincident with the filing of its Application in this docket on November 30, 2004, Columbia also filed a Petition for Confidential Treatment of Data. Under Columbia's Gas Price Hedging Plan ("Plan"), a historically based Benchmark Price is derived from winter period price information. Trigger Prices are then determined based on the Benchmark Price. Each Trigger Price has a specified quantity of Columbia's winter gas purchase requirements associated with it. Columbia will hedge the price on specified gas quantities that are to be purchased in future winter months when the New York Mercantile Exchange winter strip price is less than or equal to a Trigger Price. Columbia's earlier Petition for Confidential Treatment of Data requested confidential treatment for that part of the Plan that identifies information about the Trigger Prices, and the quantities of gas to be hedged at the identified Trigger Prices.

4. The Trigger Price information is confidential and proprietary, and, if publicly disclosed would damage Columbia's competitive position and business interests by providing competitors and financial traders with information that would enable them to determine the timing and approximate volume of Columbia's hedging activity, which might enable them to take financial positions based on that knowledge to the detriment of Columbia's ability to obtain the lowest cost gas for its customers and its ability to compete for customers. This Trigger Price information is not disclosed to the public, and is being provided only to the Commission in compliance with 807 KAR 5:001, Section 7.

5. By letter dated December 17, 2004, the Commission granted Columbia's request for confidential treatment of the Plan.

6. On November 30, 2005, Columbia filed a similar Petition for Confidential Treatment of Columbia's Initial Hedging Report and Subsequent Hedging Reports. By letter dated December 8, 2005, the Commission granted confidential treatment of Columbia's Initial Hedging Report. However, the letter made no reference to Columbia's request of confidential treatment for subsequent hedging reports.

7. The information contained in Columbia's Final Hedging Report might allow one to ascertain Columbia's sensitive Trigger Price information. Consistent with the Commission's December 17, 2004 decision to grant confidential treatment to Columbia's plan and the Commission's December 8, 2005 decision to grant confidential treatment to Columbia's Initial Hedging Report, the Final Hedging Report should also be granted confidential treatment. In view of the foregoing considerations, the data should be classified as confidential, pursuant to KRS §§ 61.870 et seq., on the following specific grounds:

- (1) Trigger Price information is exempt from disclosure pursuant to KRS § 61.878(1)(c)(1) because the information would permit an unfair commercial advantage to Columbia's competitors, and to financial traders with whom Columbia might be negotiating for the purchase of the financial instruments necessary to implement Columbia's gas price hedging plan.

(2) All the information provided herewith is further exempt from disclosure pursuant to KRS 61.878(1)(1), which exempts “information the disclosure of which is prohibited or restricted or otherwise made confidential by enactment of the General Assembly.” This is so because the Trigger Price information constitutes “data” which “[d]erives independent economic value...from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use...” It is also kept confidential by Columbia, and is therefore “the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy.” As a result, the Trigger Price data constitutes “trade secrets” within the meaning of KRS § 365.880(4)(a) and (b), and its disclosure is either prohibited or restricted by the express provisions of §§ KRS 365.880 through 365.894.

8. Pursuant to the Commission’s Order dated March 29, 2005, in this docket, Columbia will also be filing subsequent hedging reports twice each calendar year, which reports will be in a form substantially similar to that attached hereto. Columbia therefore renews its request that the Commission grant confidential treatment of this and subsequent hedging reports.

9. By granting this Petition and providing for confidential treatment of Columbia’s Final Hedging Report, and subsequent hedging reports, the Commission can fully evaluate Columbia’s hedging activities, while maintaining the general confidentiality of such data, thereby balancing the public interest with the private competitive interest in such information.

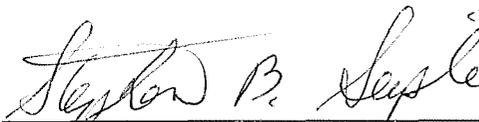

WHEREFORE, Columbia respectfully requests that the Commission issue an order authorizing the confidential treatment of Columbia’s gas price hedging plan attached hereto, as well as subsequent hedging reports, pursuant to 807 KAR 5:001, Section 7, for the reasons stated herein.

Dated at Columbus, Ohio, this 1st day of June 2006.

Respectfully submitted,

COLUMBIA GAS OF KENTUCKY, INC.
